The Shield 1948

The
ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY
TACOMA, WASHINGTON

Miss Louise Schreiber

DEDICATION

"If we work upon marble, it will perish. If we work upon brass, time will efface it. If we rear temples, they will crumble into dust—but if we work upon immortal souls, if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten all eternity."

Daniel Webster

DEAR MISS SCHREIBER:

To you with deepest admiration, we lovingly dedicate the Shield of 1948.

Through your many years in the Seminary, you have become to us a symbol of the highest aspirations of this school. Your warm friendliness, indomitable sense of humor, and fine understanding will ever be remembered by those of us who have had the privilege of knowing you.

THE SHIELD BOARD

OUR HEADMISTRESS

Miss Ruth Jenkins

Once again a graduating class passes a milestone and so turns to you, Miss Jenkins, with appreciation for your guidance through the years.

We leave behind us that matchless security of our highschool days, but our best wishes remain with you as you turn to oncoming graduates to instill in them that motto, "From Strength to Strength".

We hope that by the heritage which we now take with us, we may ever measure up to your highest expectations.

OUR BISHOP

The Right Reverend Stephen Fielding Bayne, Jr.

Our warm welcome goes to Bishop Bayne, newly consecrated Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, by virtue of this office becoming President of the Seminary's Board of Trustees.

We already know him as a warm understanding friend, an inspiring speaker, and a great spiritual leader.

He has endeared himself to us by his vital personality, his ready smile and quiet humor, his ability to stir us to nobler thought and action.

We are proud to be Bishop Bayne's first graduating class.

THE SHIELD STAFF

Last year when the Staff gathered to plan the yearbook, styles and times were rapidly changing. We thought that the Shield would feel old-fashioned in its last year's garb, so we decided to give it "The New Look". We sincerely hope you approve of its appearance, and will enjoy its pages full of memories.

The Shield board turns to you, Miss Lewis, with deep gratitude for your tireless assistance, genuine enthusiasm, and humorous patience with our whims. We hope that as you look back on this edition, your memories will be pleasant ones.

The Shield also extends heartfelt thanks to Nelson, Ed, and Bob Richards, who have given so generously of their time and suggestions, to the Mothers Club for their fine financial support, and to all our other enthusiastic contributors.

SENIORS - 1948

Class Song

Upward and onward we will go;
Blue and white, our colors, we will ever show.
You will see us coming, our faith forthrunning,
Toward the glory of our Alma Mater true.

*The foe will all retreat;
We will never face defeat.*

Upward and onward we will go;
Blue and white, our colors, we will ever show.
Our standards we will uphold forever,
So give three cheers for the Class of '48!

Sweater Song

Readin', a-thinkin', and a-writin',
Being a senior is excitin';
Look at our marvelous record—1-9-4-8,
You'll admit that the seniors are great.

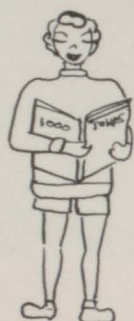

Chorus:

*Sweaters, new sweaters,
We all love our gorgeous new sweaters,
Blue, light blue,
That's why we're so loyal and true
(Just blame it on the sweaters)!*

What do we wear to all our dances?
What is the color that enhances?
What's good for hockey or tennis, early or late?
It's blue sweaters with 1-9-4-8.

Chorus:

Who's got the oomph, the pep, the spirit?
Who's got persistence? You can hear it!
Who's got the prettiest color? Now we'll tell you:
It's your '48 seniors in blue!

We will fight for honor and fame.
As forward we stride, Annie Wright will provide,
Us with courage to make a great name.
Our triumph unfold at the glories we'll hold,
In the spirit in which they were won.
Though we know we'll sometimes lose,
We'll fight till the job is done.
So—we'll onward go
To do our best for fifty-one!

THE MASQUE PLAYERS

"Does anyone know where I can find six silver goblets?" . . .

"There will be a special rehearsal of Act Three this afternoon in the gym" . . .

Similar announcements heralded the Masque Players' most ambitious production, The King's Henchman, by Edna St. Vincent Millay, on March 6 . . .

By its highly successful production of this modern classic, Masque accepted and met a new challenge . . .

Under the fine leadership of Miss White, Masque has created a workshop . . . given a radio show in an assembly . . .

At the end of the year, its efforts were climaxed by the Masque Banquet.

SENIOR CHRONICLES . . .

The Class of 1948 has had a long and proud history . . .

1937 . . . We began in the First Class with Dee Quevli . . . who initiated our chain of accomplishments by being a Herald of the May Court . . .

1940 . . . Marilyn joined us in the Fourth Class . . . We gave an entertaining play about animals . . .

1943 . . . The third member joined us this year: Donna . . . We became expert naturalists . . .

1944 . . . We welcomed three new girls, Christie, Jane, and Mickey . . . Christie was president . . . our footloose and fancy-free year . . . gave a radio program . . .

1945 . . . We entered our long-awaited Upper School years . . . Marilyn was president, as our real history began . . . We welcomed Liz and Grace and Marcella to the ranks . . . We immediately made ourselves known by our Class Song, to the tune of "Buckle Down, Winsocki" . . . The Halloween Cup was ours: . . . "Lord Ullin's Daughter" a great success . . . Our first Hop . . . Our Hearts are Really Young and Gay!

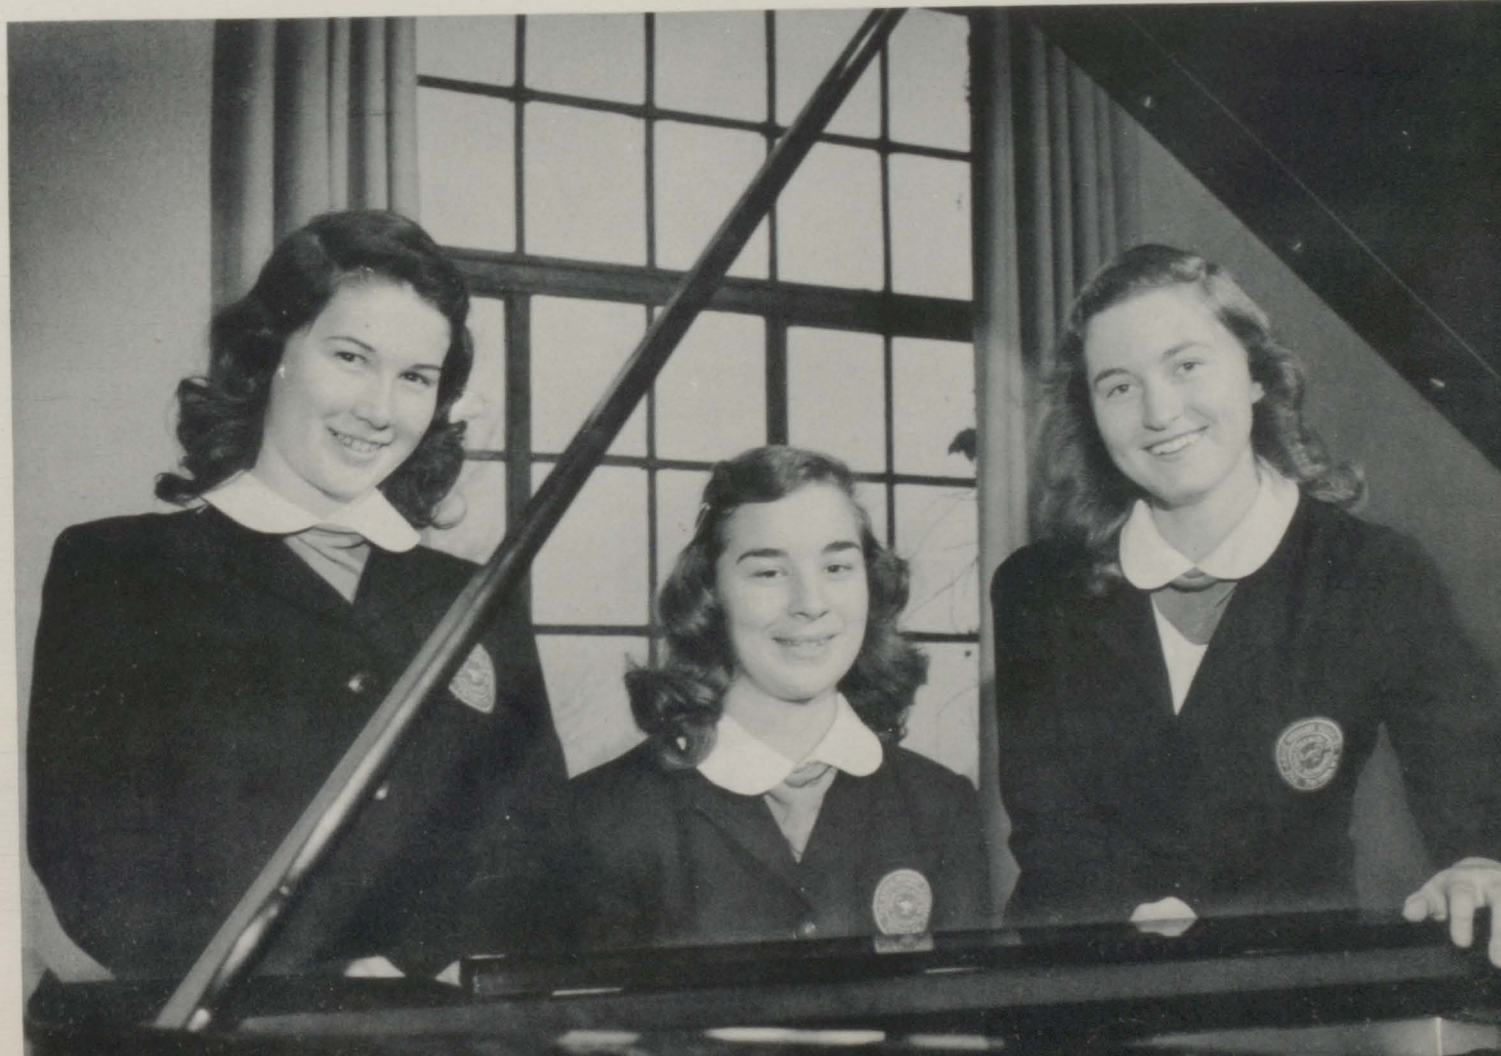

1946 . . . The Sophisticated Sophomores, under the leadership of Liz . . . We acquire many new girls . . . Our ballet supreme, Duck Pond, won the Halloween Cup again (but only half of it!) . . . Our second hop, It Might as Well Be Spring . . . We served at the Prom . . . We were constantly in and out of trouble . . .

1947 . . . Another large group of new members . . . The Junior Journal, with Jane as Editor . . . Our first Prom, a beautiful dance, with bushes of pink carnations . . . We initiated hawthorne as May Day decorations . . . Betty was our lovely Maid of Honor . . . We gleefully took over senior duties . . . Our Step Song, a breathless hit . . . Ciney the lucky Senior . . . Marilyn our Key Girl . . .

1948 . . . Our wonderful senior year, with Grace, president of our class; Ida, president of Student Body . . . two new girls, Judy and Ginny . . . We established a record by finding the Spade in less than 24 hours . . . in an overstuffed sofa . . . Our beautiful blue sweaters . . . The Halloween Cup was ours for the third time, as the pickaninnies took command of H. M. S. Pinafore . . . Mickey, as chairman, gave us a highly successful Christmas Carnival . . . Dee, Editor of our Shield . . . Our May Day, with Marilyn reigning as queen . . . We reluctantly gave up our senior duties . . . The last week came quickly, followed by Senior Week . . . Baccalaureate, Tree-Planting, Willing . . . and finally, between tears and laughter, came Commencement . . . and we were graduated.

MAY DAY

Dear Annie . . .

Time has passed quickly this last year until we now have few remaining days within your beloved halls. Thank you, Annie, for the many values that you have given us, not only material things, but many precious memories of times and friends never to be forgotten. The quiet and peace of your lovely chapel, the friendliness of your spacious halls, the happy clamor of children playing on your green lawns, the view of mountains, sky, and sea will ever be held close within our memories.

Annie, you have been built and preserved by the many girls who are your daughters. They have loved you through their tears and laughter. They have shown their loyalty to you through their success and failures by their praise and their judgments. We too hope that each of us may leave a part of herself to strengthen your rich tradition.

You have given us a gracious heritage which we will ever treasure as we go "From Strength to Strength."

THE CLASS OF '48.

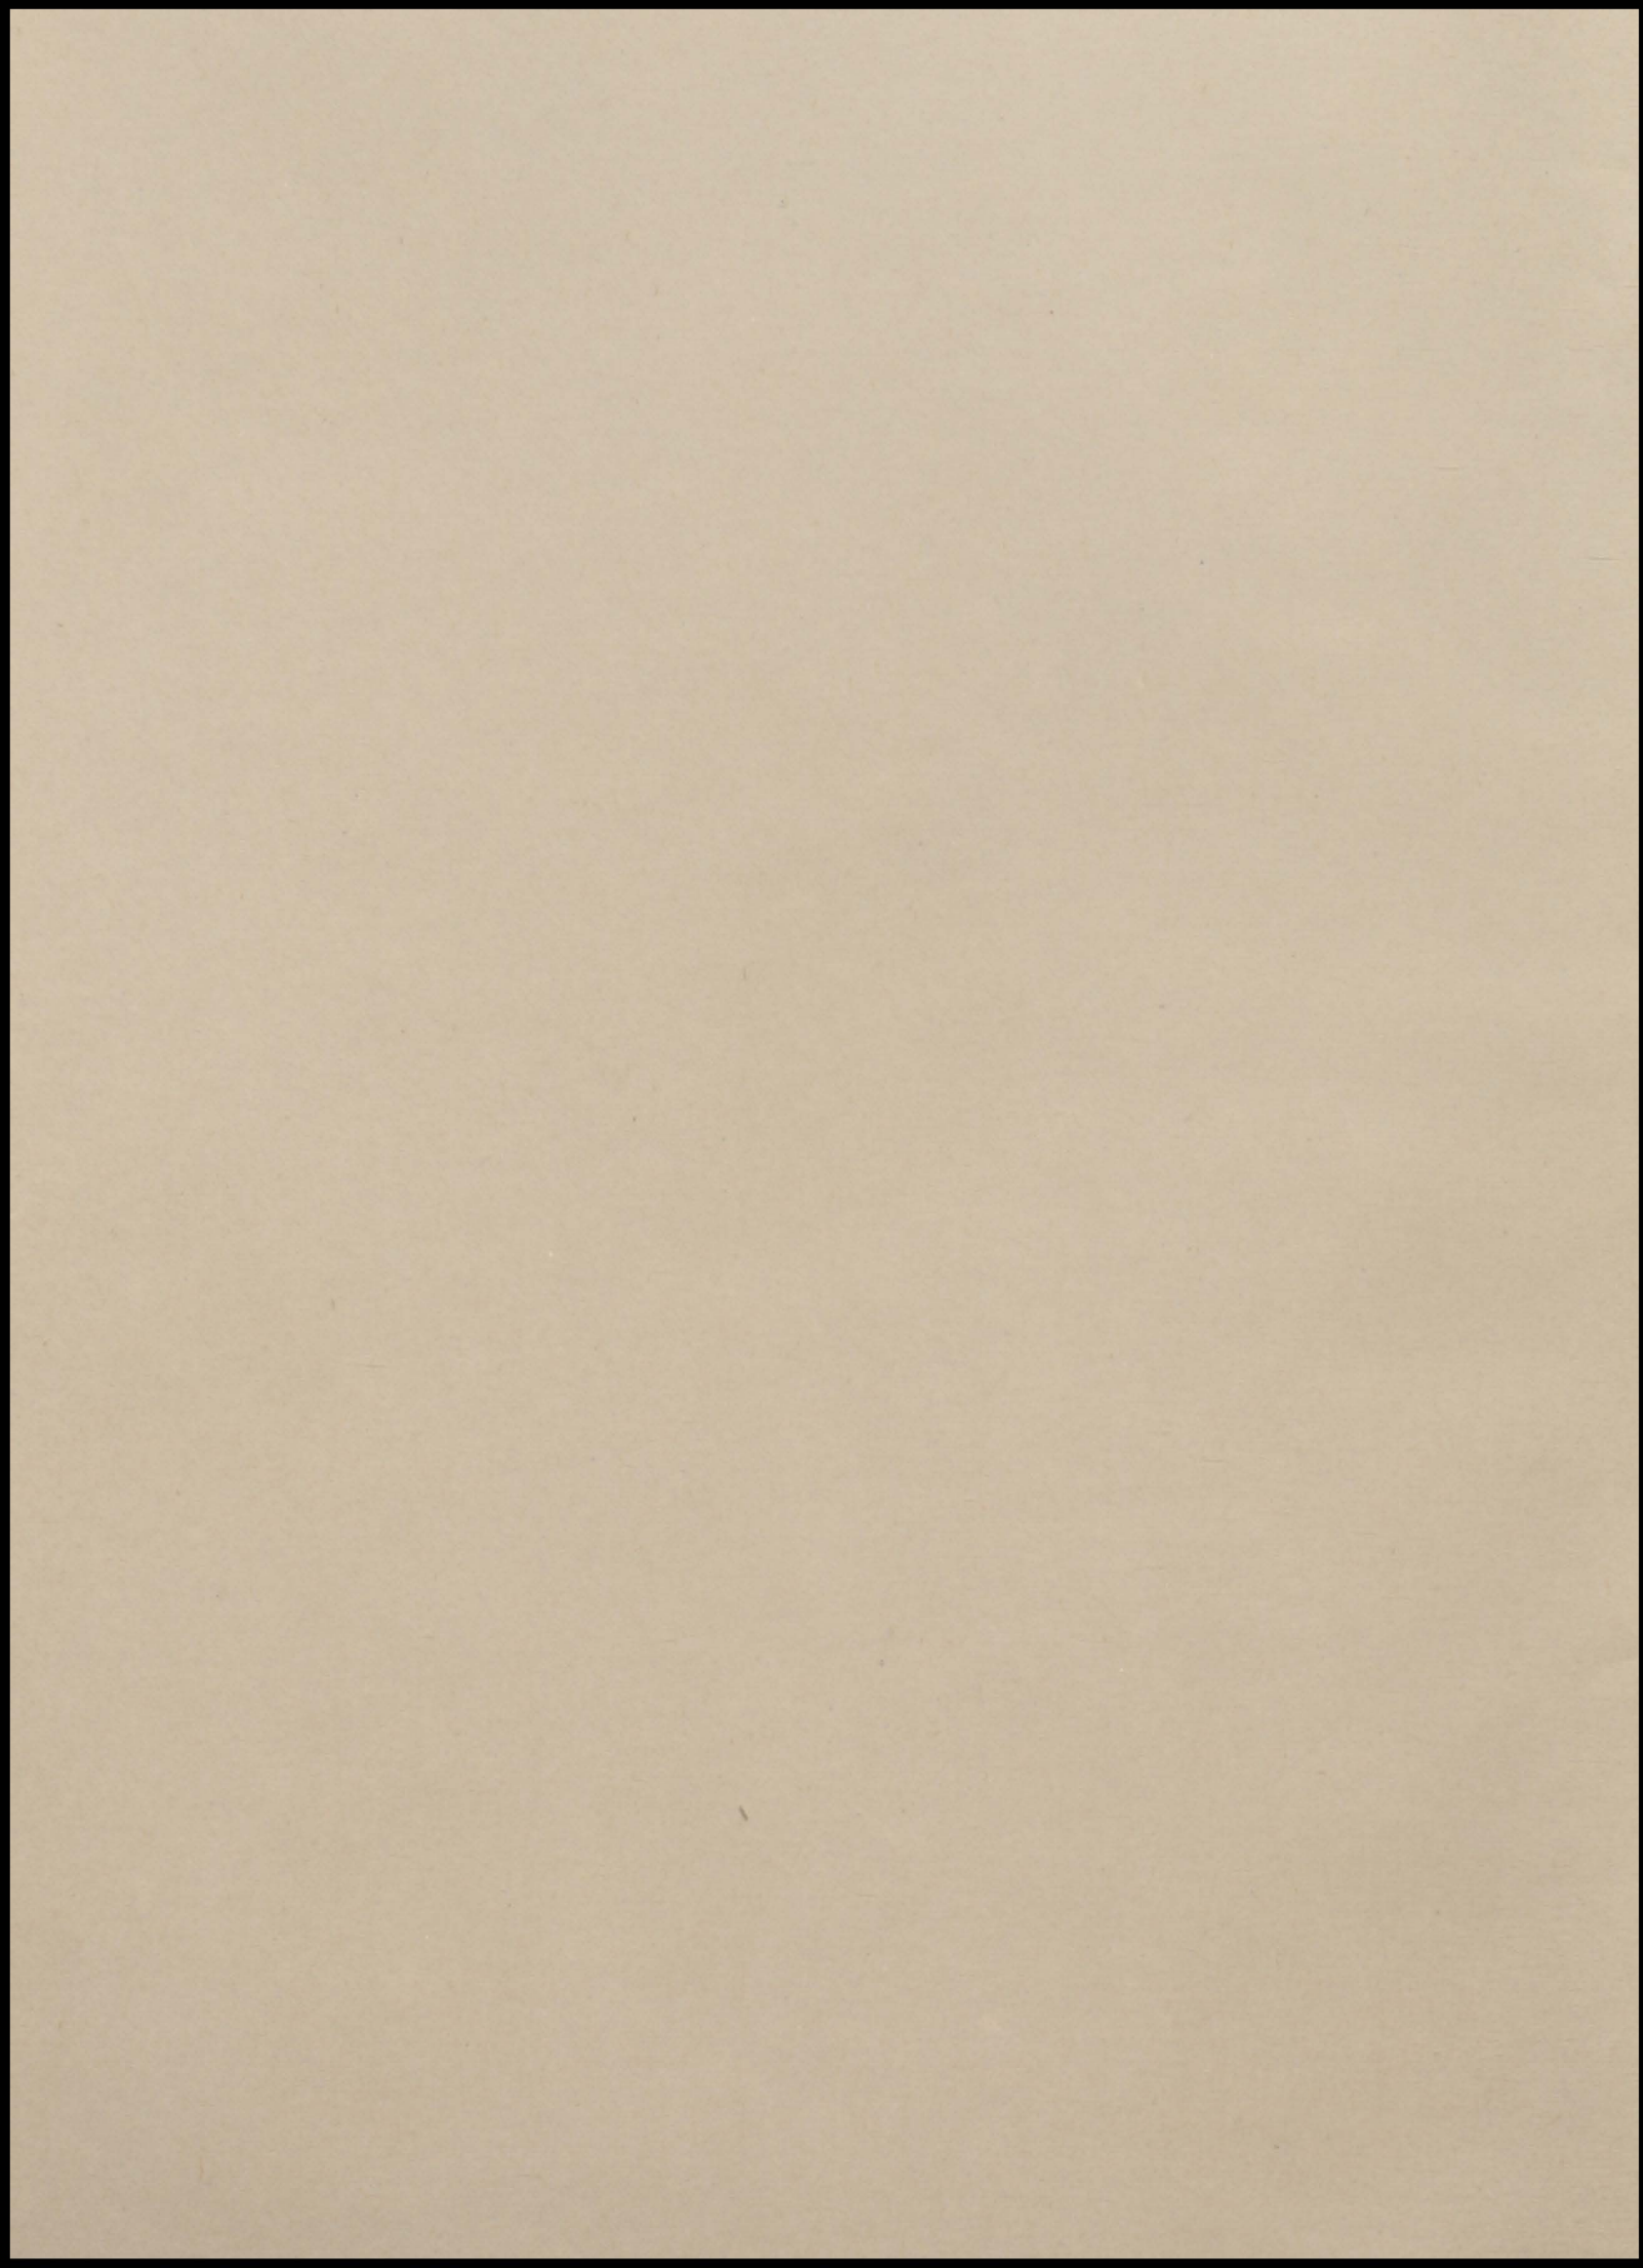

May We . . .

*Seek the truth from out the past,
Live it always, first as last.*

*Take the present in our stride,
Understand, but not confide.*

*Keep our future vision clear,
Make of life a fine career.*
